

UFCW News Service
January 16, 2008

The UFCW Scholarship Program application is now available online. To assist you in spreading the word about scholarships available to your members from the UFCW International Union, we've attached break room flyers in English, French and Spanish. These flyers are also available for download in various sizes from our website.

Based on our research among UFCW members, scholarship programs have tremendous value for young workers. Redesigned for 2008, the UFCW Scholarship can now be utilized to better serve our members and act as a tool to organize.

Several scholarships of up to $8,000 will be awarded to UFCW members and their dependents. The scholarships are limited to UFCW members who have been in good standing since January 14, 2007.

The application is available online only from January 15-March 15, 2008.

For complete eligibility requirements and information on how to apply, please visit www.ufcw.org/scholarship.

If you have questions or need additional information, please contact Mandie Yanasak, Field Assistant in the Organizing Department, at myanasak@ufcw.org or 202.728.1810.
